DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 70-75, 78, 79, and 92-111 are pending. Claims 70, 73, 78, and 79 have been amended, claims 76 and 77 have been cancelled, and claims 92-111 have been added in this communication filed 8/13/09 entered as RCE with filing of amendment.
2. The amendment to the Specification has been considered and entered.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 08/13/09 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 70, 73, 78, 79, 93, 101, and 111 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 70 is vague and unclear as to how the computer determines the certificate identifier corresponding to the account. It cannot be determined from the manner in which the claim limitation is written how the computer can determine that the certificate identifier is different from the account identifier. Do Applicants' have a piece of software to assist the computer in making this determination? Claims 73, 78, and 79 have a similar issue.

Claim 93 recites "applying a user-alterable means for obstructing the visibility of said corresponding certificate identifier". This claim limitation crosses two separate statutory classes of invention. The preamble of the claim recites a method and the preamble of the parent claim also recites a method but the body of the claim recites a means plus function. A means plus function ("means for obstructing") attempt to what is interpreted as invoking 35 USC 112, sixth paragraph. Claim 101 has a similar issue. It is noted that the issued patent no. 6,193,155 has this dependent claim limitation. However, a claim limitation of this nature is considered improper. It is suggested that Applicants' delete the term "means" and change the term to "function".

Claim 111 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the elements. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted elements are: "assigning "in the database the" corresponding certificate identifier.

Claims 71-75, and 92-111 are also rejected for their dependency from a rejected base claim.

Conclusion

Remarks: Once the claims have been amended and the rejections as set forth above have been overcome and no new references to reject the claims is found the application will be allowed.
